

RACIST?
By
Dr. Lewis R. Woodard

Some of my writings are written, shall we say, to get the reader's attention. While it may be said that I am not the most articulate when it comes to my writings, I can say I do not write to be articulate, but rather to inform and exhort. My main concern for people of all walks, (red, yellow, black, white, etc.) is that they realize that Christ came to earth "...to seek and to save that which was lost." (Luke 19:10)

RACISM

We hear much today about racism. I know that there has been criticism by some concerning things I have said concerning our now (2016) President: Obama. Let me say this: I am not writing this short article to defend what I have written, or about my stand against sin. I am writing this short article to ask:

1. IF YOU DID NOT VOTE FOR OBAMA, ARE YOU A RACIST? The answer, of course, is: MAYBE.

A. If you did not vote for Obama because you are a Republican: you are not a racist ( at least that is, if you simply voted along Party Lines).

B. If you did not vote for Obama because you disagreed with his ideas (at least the ideas you knew about): You are not a racist, at least in how you voted.

C. If you did not vote for Obama because of the color of his skin, you could very likely be a racist.

2. IF YOU VOTED FOR OBAMA, ARE YOU A RACIST? The answer, of course, is: MAYBE.

A. If you voted for Obama because you are a Democrat: you are not a racist ( at least that is, if you simply voted along Party Lines).

B. If you voted for Obama because you agreed with his ideas (at least the ideas you knew about): you are not a racist, at least in how you voted.

C. If you voted for Obama because of the color of his skin, you could very well be a racist.

3. I PERSONALLY DID NOT VOTE FOR OBAMA. DOES THAT MAKE ME A RACIST? The answer: YOU DECIDE.

A. I did not vote for Jimmy Carter. Does that make me a racist?

B. I did not vote for Bill Clinton? Does that make me a racist?

C. I did not vote for Obama. Does that make me a racist?

D. I did not vote for President Obama for several reasons. I list some of the reasons as follows:

RACIST?

I personally oppose: the President's so called "health care benefit plan" (Obama Care) that is and will be proven, I believe, a giant fiasco; his opposition to Israel; his acceptance of homosexuality as simply a "lifestyle" instead of calling it sin; his advocating the murder, abortion, of unborn human beings; his not standing up for the only true God and Saviour Jesus Christ; his effort to justify and minimize Islamic terrorism, as he has tried to assert moral equivalency with Christianity (2015 so called National "Prayer" Breakfast); his standing up for Planned Parenthood even though the organization kills humans and sells baby body parts; stands up for homosexual marriage instead of standing up for religious freedom, etc, etc, etc, etc, etc....

4. Am I a racist?

If standing up for religious freedom, standing up for the Bible (KJV), wanting our country to have a President and leaders who STAND UP for our country and the True God, if that is your definition of a racist, then I guess I am one. How about you?

We are now into another election year. How you vote is entirely up to you. If you are saved, please let the Holy Spirit guide you in your decisions.

CHRIST IS THE ONLY WAY TO HEAVEN

John 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

If you have never trusted Christ as your Saviour, please ask Him into your heart (not your physical heart, but your innermost being). As best as you know how, ask Him to save you, believing He was crucified (he died), He was buried, and He was resurrected (He's alive); believe He's God; believe He's the Saviour. Believe He died and that He lives for you personally!

Acts 16:30-31 "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? 31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

Romans 1:16 "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

The GOSPEL of Christ: the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ! Believe and receive!

Because of Christ,

Lewis
